We do not have these strict, financial deadlines in place to discourage students. However, Fullcircle was created to be an elite ministry school while also being as affordable as possible. We hope and pray that our intentions are evident during this payment process.

Because we do our best to be an affordable program, we can not operate to the best of our ability while trying to handle extreme dynamics such as late payments. Please talk to us if you are worried about your finances. We are here for you. We are praying for you. We believe in you. With God's help, you can do this.
